

PROCLAMATION IN HONOR OF
THE 102nd BIRTHDAY OF
MRS Louise Crowther

WHEREAS, Mrs. Louise Crowther holds the distinction of being a Granite Quarry, NC Centenarian; and

WHEREAS, according to the Pew Research Center less than 0.03% of the overall U.S. population is over 100, and Mrs. Crowther is one of those remarkable few; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Crowther is a proud 7th-generation descendant of the Brown family, who are the founders of the historic Old Stone House; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Crowther has spent her life in Granite Quarry, and today continues to reside just a few blocks from the very place where she was born; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Crowther has long been admired for her remarkable vitality, vibrant energy, and optimistic spirit, qualities that defy her years and inspire all who meet her; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Crowther will celebrate the momentous occasion of her 102nd birthday on August 25, 2025, marking over a century of life, wisdom, and devotion to her family and community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that I, Brittany H. Barnhardt, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the Town of Granite Quarry, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim and celebrate the life of distinguished citizen, Mrs. Louise Crowther.

On this the 11th Day of August, 2025.

Brittany H. Barnhardt, Mayor

ATTEST:

Aubrey Smith, Town Clerk

